Come Join Us for our Lecture Series and Panel Discussions:

"Grace Not For Sale"

Rev. Dr. Timothy J. Wengert

Saturday, November 18, 7 pm.

Church of the Cross, 560 Arlington St.

The Rev. Dr. Timothy Wengert has published many books, including Reading the Bible With Luther, and a translation of The 95 Theses. He was awarded the Melanchthon Prize for his studies of that peacemaking scholar and colleague of Luther. During recent months he has spoken in many Lutheran and Catholic churches in Asia and North America. In July he gave a plenary address to the International Luther Congress meeting at Wittenberg, Germany.

"Unity in Diversity"

Rev. Dr. Dirk Lange

Saturday, November 25, 2 pm.

St. Mary's Academy, 550 Wellington Cr.

The Rev. Dr. Dirk Lange was co-planner of worship for the Commemoration of the Reformation in Lund and Malmo with Prayers for Unity of Catholics and Lutherans. He is the Lutheran member for North America of the International Commission of Lutherans and Roman Catholics for Unity, meeting across the globe. Born and educated in Winnipeg, he has published books and essays on Christian worship and teaches in Luther Seminary, St. Paul, Minnesota.
