Events in and around the Archdiocese

Together In Mission: 2018 Sharing God's Gifts

This year's theme for Sharing God's Gifts is "Together In Mission". It is meant to remind us that continuing the mission of Jesus involves all of us. At our Synod we focussed on our call to Discipleship as people Established, Anointed, and Sent in Christ - together.

The Archdiocese of Winnipeg is blessed with faith-filled parishioners, active parishes and missions, gifted communities, councils, and institutions. While none of us have all the gifts necessary to fulfill our pastoral ministries, together we have the gifts we need to build up the church in South Western Manitoba.

Sharing God's Gifts is an opportunity for each of us to recognize the blessings we have received and generously decide how we can support our pastoral outreach ministries throughout the Archdiocese.

I am grateful for your past support of Sharing God's Gifts and count on your generosity as we move forward Together In Mission.

God Bless,

Archbishop Richard Gagnon

Life flows from sacrificial love.

There is an intimacy in the Gospel this week -- that we should be considered friends of Jesus! [John 15]. Everything the Father has given to Jesus, He extends to us, inviting us to follow Him. This is incredible and daunting because the measure of Jesus' love for the Father is to offer His whole self that we might live.

When we follow Jesus in loving sacrificially, we participate in God's life-giving love, for ourselves and for others.

What makes this kind of loving possible is staying deeply rooted in our relationship with God. We cannot sustain this kind of love without Him.

As we prepare for the National Week for Life and Family beginning next week, spend some time already asking how your family could make a sacrifice to offer love to those struggling to appreciate the gift of life and family in your community.

PRAYER: Jesus, Friend and Redeemer, help us to draw close to you, that we might follow you in loving even when it is very difficult. Your sacrifice gave us life. Help us to choose sacrifices that share your love and care with others, so they might also see and love you. Amen. Alleluia!
