The Son of Man will sit on the throne of his glory. [Matthew 25:31]

“Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord” [Psalm 118:26]

With this great feast of Christ the King, we come to the end of our liturgical year only to begin again next week with the first Sunday of Advent. Over a span of a year, we have heard in Scripture of the creation of the world, and the universe in Christ through whom all was created.

We pray in our Nicene Creed, Through Him all things, visible and invisible were created. We have lived through a cycle of prayer where we have celebrated our King in the Eucharist with Scripture reflecting on and praying with the WORD MADE FLESH—the Christ.

Jesus has taught us the way to discipleship while giving us a glimpse of the Kingdom of God. For when I was thirsty, you gave me a drink; hungry, you gave me food; imprisoned, you set me free; naked, you clothed me. What you did for the least of these, you did for me. [Matthew 25]. Remember the Beatitudes? Blessed are you who do all these things and yours is the Kingdom of heaven! Christ our Shepherd King gave us a new law of love and showed us how to live it in right relationship with God, self, others and the universe. He is the Lamb of God, the King who gave his life that we may have eternal life: Christ has been raised from the dead...in Christ shall all be brought to life. [1 Corinthians 15.20 & 22].

Catechism of the Catholic Church

CCC Paragraph 680: Christ the Lord already reigns through the Church, but all the things of this world are not yet subjected to him. The triumph of Christ's kingdom will not come about without one last assault by the powers of evil.

The King is a Shepherd who has shown us how to live.

When the Israelites waited for a Messiah, they expected a mighty king, a ruler, a prince, a powerful personality who would take them out of suffering into glory. And He did.

But He did so as an infant, a shepherd to the meek and persecuted, a sideline preacher who was murdered on a cross and rose anyway.

We are the daughters and sons of a King, who makes us part of his Kingdom. In God's Kingdom, abundant life and great power is found in the little ways of feeding the hungry, clothing the naked, visiting those who are sick and imprisoned, reaching out to those most in need, [Matthew 25] even and maybe especially when this service costs us something.

Christ is King because He raises us all up. May our lives, in imitation of His, be a lifting up of those who suffer around us.
