Dorothy Day: Challenge to Comfortable Spirituality May 25, 7pm - May 27, 1pm

"Don't call me a saint... I don't want to be dismissed so easily." Join us as we open the story and spirituality of this remarkable, "salty" woman. Take a long, compassionate look at the spirituality we need to be present to the marginalized and poor in a way that is genuinely life-giving. We will necessarily engage our own "shadow" in the midst of doing good".

Private room $240; Shared $220; Commuter $120

Brother Don is internationally recognized for his lectures, workshops and retreats on the interrelationship of Christian spirituality and Jungian psychology. He has been working with dreams for 30 years in spiritual direction using Jungian tools and psychology to enhance the process. He comes to us from New York.
