No Child Alone Dinner planned for April 24

Winnipeg, March 4, 2025: Rossbrook House Foundation is once again planning a fundraising dinner for Rossbrook House programs.

Rossbrook House Foundation is thrilled to announce that tickets are on sale for the 2025 No Child Alone Dinner, happening on Thursday, April 24 at the RBC Convention Centre. Honorary co-chairs are Shelley and Larry McIntosh.

After retiring from Peak of the Market, Shelley and Larry McIntosh have been sharing their time and infectious spirits with Rossbrook House Foundation. Since June of 2023, Larry has been the Chair of the Foundation and Shelley is a member of the 2025 No Child Alone Dinner committee. Their dedication to the children and youth of Rossbrook House is evident in every event they attend, and every phone call, email, and discussion they have on behalf of Rossbrook House and the Foundation. Their support is invaluable.

For $175 guests will enjoy a delicious meal, while learning more about Rossbrook House programs from current and past participants. There will also be a silent auction. Sponsorship opportunities and corporate tables are available as well.

Sister Geraldine MacNamara, co-founder of Rossbrook House, said 'no child who does not want to be alone, should ever have to be' and this has been the guiding vision for Rossbrook House staff and board all these years. In 2016, in honour of the 40th anniversary, the first No Child Alone dinner was created.

The 2025 dinner is an opportunity to showcase inspiring stories and raise much needed funds for programs for children and youth, ages 6 to 24.

About Rossbrook House:

In 1976 Sister Geraldine MacNamara and a group of inner-city young people created Rossbrook House. In the decades since, it continues to be a safe place for children and youth to belong, play, learn and become...

About Rossbrook House Foundation:

The Foundation exists to assist Rossbrook House in supporting its programs and operations as well as funding its scholarship and award activities.
